Names must be submitted by family members and will be kept for a period of one month. For the sick, we require a monthly resubmission of the name and if the condition of the individual changes sooner, please let us know.

Easter, the feast of the resurrection, gives us the joyful message that we are a "resurrection people." This means that we are not supposed to lie buried in the tomb of our sins, evil habits and dangerous addictions. It gives us the good news that no tomb can hold us down anymore - not the tomb of despair, discouragement, doubt nor death. Instead, we are expected to live a joyful and peaceful life, constantly experiencing the real presence of the resurrected Lord in all the events of our lives. "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad".

Christians, praise the pascal victim! Offer thankful sacrifice! Christ the Lamb has saved the sheep, Christ the just one paid the price, Reconciling sinners to the Father. (Sequence of Easter)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
The grace of our risen Lord be with you!

We have all been in this pandemic for over a year now, and there have been many difficulties and lockdowns. We may be tempted to think that things will never change.

However, this Easter time reminds us of the hope we have in our risen Lord. We are in this world, but do not belong to it. God made us for himself. St. Paul reminds "not to set our mind on things that are on earth, but to seek the things that are above." (Col 3: 1-2) Yes, we live and toil in this life, but with our gaze firmly fixed in heaven, our destiny.

I would like to take this moment to thank our deacons and their wives, our parish staff, all our volunteers, screeners, ushers, lecturers, cantors, organists, slide advancers and everyone who helps to keep us open and to worship safe. May the Lord reward you a hundred-fold.

Let us continue to pray for each other; Fr. Rafał and I will continue to pray for all of you.

In Christ,

Fr. Landorff

STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZING THE RISEN LORD

These past forty days we've been preparing for this great feast where we will be met with the risen Christ yet how often do we fail to recognize Him in our daily lives? St. Teresa of Calcutta believes that we encounter Jesus through our neighbour as she says "I see Jesus in every human being. I say to myself, this is hungry Jesus, I must feed him." This Easter, let us rejoice in Jesus' resurrection and seek to find and serve Him in our neighbour by being good stewards.

EASTER IS THE GIFT...

Easter is the gift of HOPE
Easter is the gift of PEACE
Easter is the gift of LOVE

Let us rejoice in Him,
Who gives them all.
May God bless you at Easter,
And keep you all year
through.
May God give you all the faith it takes,
To make your dreams
come true.
May His love and wisdom
always help,
To guide you on your way.
May His light shine down
upon you now,
To bless your Easter Day.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

APRIL 11

During the course of Jesus' revelations to Saint Faustina on the Divine Mercy He asked on numerous occasions that a feast day be dedicated to the Divine Mercy and that this feast be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. The liturgical texts of that day, the second Sunday of Easter, concern the institution of the Sacrament of Penance, the Tribunal of the Divine Mercy, and are thus already suited to the request of Our Lord. This Feast, which had already been granted to the nation of Poland and been celebrated within Vatican City, was granted to the Universal Church by Pope John Paul II on the occasion of the canonization of Sr. Faustina on 30 April 2000. Our Lord wants to teach us the story of His Love and how it remains with us even until death. Our Lord gave Sister Faustina the prayers of the chaplet of Divine Mercy.

The Divine Mercy novena begins on Good Friday and ends on Divine Mercy Sunday April 11. To access the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy Novena online. visit: <https://bit.ly/3rt5JiH>

For each of the nine days, our Lord gave Saint Faustina a different intention: All mankind, especially sinners; the souls of priests and religious; all devout and faithful souls; those who do not believe in God and those who do not yet know Jesus; the souls who have separated themselves from the Church; the meek and humble souls and the souls of little children; the souls who especially venerate and glorify His mercy; the souls detained in purgatory; and souls who have become lukewarm.

"I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw there from strength and refreshment and whatever grace they have need of in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death" (Diary, 1209).

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

○ God, You have constituted Your only-begotten Son supreme and eternal Priest for the glory of Your majesty and the salvation of mankind; grant that those whom He has chosen ministers and dispensers of His mysteries may be found faithful in fulfilling the ministry they have received.
Amen.

Jesus, source of my life, sanctify me.

○ my strength, fortify me.

My Commander, fight for me.

Only light of my soul, enlighten me.

My Master, guide me.

St. Faustina

April 1 2021

My dear friends,

I pray that you and your loved ones are healthy and managing through these challenging days. For many, it feels as though our Lenten journey has been a year long period of sacrifice and penance.

At this time last year, we were in the early days of the pandemic and experienced a very different kind of Holy Week. Once again this year, we will not be able to gather in large numbers for the Triduum as significant restrictions announced today will continue in all areas of the Archdiocese of Toronto.

In the midst of this spiritual distress, we must not lose sight that through the storm we are experiencing, Jesus remains the way, the truth and the life. I know that so many of you have found opportunities to be the face and hands of Christ through this pandemic; caring for people who are isolated or marginalized, serving as ambassadors of compassion and love while having the opportunity to reflect on what is truly important in our lives.

While we are all feeling drained by the restrictions in place, we know that these are temporary measures with a beginning and an end. Sadly, the number of positive Covid-19 cases in our province are on the rise once again with more than 7,000 lives lost and many sick in hospital. We pray that health and safety measures, along with vaccinating the public as soon as possible will allow us to gather together without restrictions to celebrate the Eucharist, the source and summit of our faith.

I fully recognize that this Holy Week, it is frustrating for many Catholics in our archdiocese who were unable to reserve a space for services. Thank you for your patience and understanding. The dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass remains in place at this time. We are grateful to our clergy and parish staff with many parishes adding additional services to accommodate as many as possible. I also extend my gratitude to the thousands of volunteers who have worked so faithfully to ensure that our churches remain a safe place to gather in prayer.

While it is not a substitute for in-person participation in the sacraments, for those unable to join us at church, I encourage you to view the televised services offered through the National Catholic Broadcasting Council, Salt & Light Catholic Media or EWTN as well as the many livestream services made available through our parishes. You can also view Triduum services at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica or journey with a virtual Stations of the Cross produced by St. Michael's Choir School. Be assured that all priests of the archdiocese, myself included, will be keeping your intentions close in prayer this week.

May the Easter hope that accompanies the risen Christ serve as a reminder of the joy that we will experience collectively when these days of pandemic are no more. May God continue to bless you in a special way this Holy Week.

Sincerely in Christ,

Thomas Cardinal Collins
