With Jesus' appearance to the disciples on that first Easter evening, we are vividly reminded of the Sacrament of Reconciliation – the power to forgive sins which Our Lord gave to his apostles: "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained" (Jn 20-23). Today's gospel also emphasizes the importance of faith in the all-pervading presence of the Risen Lord of Mercy. To believe without having seen is every later Christian's experience. We are invited to receive liberation from doubts and hesitation by surrendering our lives to the risen Lord of mercy. Let us ask God our Father to open our hearts, so that we may receive His Mercy in the form of His Holy Spirit.

CONGRATULATIONS

We congratulate Brayden Gold, and Brooklynn Gold who received the sacraments of baptism and First Eucharist, and our newly confirmed, Xavier Baller and Ian Dove as they all joined us at the Eucharistic table this Easter Season. Please keep these new members in your prayers.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Today, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. The church teaches that St. Faustina, a 20th-century Polish nun, recorded revelations that she received from Jesus who, as she wrote in her diary, desired that "a Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls." The readings tell the story of God's abundant mercy and love for us.

We ask for the grace to more clearly respond to these great signs and wonders of mercy and love that God continues to bestow on us and our world.

COMMUNITY BREAD COLLECTION

This weekend we ask that you consider making a donation to help care for the needs of the poor. Feeding the hungry is the focus of this ministry and they do so by preparing a community meal every Monday. You can help by providing funds in order to cover the cost of the weekly community meals. If you do not have a box of offertory envelopes, envelopes will be available as you exit the church today.

EASTER FLOWERS

The season of Easter ends May 23 when we celebrate Pentecost Sunday. Donations for Easter flowers will be accepted

LIVING THE GOSPEL BY SHARING OUR BLESSINGS

The goal for the 2021 ShareLife Campaign is $13.8 million. Our parish goal is $106,000. "Our goal can be met, but only ShareLife with your help. I invite you to join today's generation of heroes by making a sacrificial gift to ShareLife. As you contemplate the blessings God has entrusted to you, please join me in giving to ShareLife to the best of your ability." Cardinal Thomas Collins

Next weekend, April 18, is ShareLife Sunday.

Please give generously.

Christians, praise the pascal victim! Offer thankful sacrifice! Christ the Lamb has saved the sheep, Christ the just one paid the price, Reconciling sinners to the Father. (Sequence of Easter)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The grace of our risen Lord be with you!

We have all been in this pandemic for over a year now, and there have been many difficulties and lockdowns. We may be tempted to think that things will never change.

However, this Easter time reminds us of the hope we have in our risen Lord. We are in this world, but do not belong to it. God made us for himself. St. Paul reminds "not to set our mind on things that are on earth, but to seek the things that are above." (Col 3: 1-2) Yes, we live and toil in this life, but with our gaze firmly fixed in heaven, our destiny.

I would like to take this moment to thank our deacons and their wives, our parish staff, all our volunteers, screeners, ushers, lecturers, cantors, organists, slide advancers and everyone who helps to keep us open and to worship safe. May the Lord reward you a hundred-fold.

Let us continue to pray for each other; Fr. Rafał and I will continue to pray for all of you.

In Christ,

Fr. Landorff

any time throughout this season of Easter. We thank you for your generosity in keeping our sanctuary looking beautiful.

April 1 2021

My dear friends,

I pray that you and your loved ones are healthy and managing through these challenging days. For many, it feels as though our Lenten journey has been a year long period of sacrifice and penance.

At this time last year, we were in the early days of the pandemic and experienced a very different kind of Holy Week. Once again this year, we will not be able to gather in large numbers for the Triduum as significant restrictions announced today will continue in all areas of the Archdiocese of Toronto.

In the midst of this spiritual distress, we must not lose sight that through the storm we are experiencing, Jesus remains the way, the truth and the life. I know that so many of you have found opportunities to be the face and hands of Christ through this pandemic; caring for people who are isolated or marginalized, serving as ambassadors of compassion and love while having the opportunity to reflect on what is truly important in our lives.

While we are all feeling drained by the restrictions in place, we know that these are temporary measures with a beginning and an end. Sadly, the number of positive Covid-19 cases in our province are on the rise once again with more than 7,000 lives lost and many sick in hospital. We pray that health and safety measures, along with vaccinating the public as soon as possible will allow us to gather together without restrictions to celebrate the Eucharist, the source and summit of our faith.

I fully recognize that this Holy Week, it is frustrating for many Catholics in our archdiocese who were unable to reserve a space for services. Thank you for your patience and understanding. The dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass remains in place at this time. We are grateful to our clergy and parish staff with many parishes adding additional services to accommodate as many as possible. I also extend my gratitude to the thousands of volunteers who have worked so faithfully to ensure that our churches remain a safe place to gather in prayer.

While it is not a substitute for in-person participation in the sacraments, for those unable to join us at church, I encourage you to view the televised services offered through the National Catholic Broadcasting Council, Salt & Light Catholic Media or EWTN as well as the many livestream services made available through our parishes. You can also view Triduum services at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica or journey with a virtual Stations of the Cross produced by St. Michael's Choir School. Be assured that all priests of the archdiocese, myself included, will be keeping your intentions close in prayer this week.

May the Easter hope that accompanies the risen Christ serve as a reminder of the joy that we will experience collectively when these days of pandemic are no more. May God continue to bless you in a special way this Holy Week.

Sincerely in Christ,

Thomas Cardinal Collins
